The Bulletin

Norwich, Thursday, Aug. 26, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Treeing has begun.

The snapper blues are reported to be increasing somewhat in size as the season progresses.

The day of the mushroom is here. A sure way to tell a toad-stool from a mushroom is by eating.

Bee hunting is being enjoyed by a few vacationists who delight in this pastime, but it is rather early.

Work has been started upon the wigwag for the annual festival of the Ladies' Sewing society at Mohegan.

It is stated that not in many years has the number of yachts visiting New London been as small as it has been this season.

Extra equipment which will cost about $1400 is to be added to the present machinery at the Manual Training school, New London.

The Norwich Spiritual Lyceum will hold their annual picnic at Lincoln park Saturday, August 28th. Car leaves 9:45 a. m. All are welcome.—adv.

Charles Schwartz of New London was adjudged bankrupt in the district court of the United States at Hartford Wednesday on petition of his creditors.

His Norwich friends will regret to learn that Allen B. Lincoln and family are preparing to move to New Haven the first of September, where he is now district agent for one of the large insurance companies.

Encouraged by the result of the agitation for no-license the Connecticut Temperance union is preparing for a more energetic prosecution of the work for bringing all of the towns in the state into the no-license column.

The oyster opening business will be commenced in many places in about another week as the opening is usually commenced on or about the first day in September.

Notices have been sent out to members of the family of the second annual reunion and dinner of the A. B. Dunham association at New Haven Friday.

From motives of economy the prisoners at the Middlesex jail at Haddam will after the first of September eat their meals with milk instead of molasses.

The fourth reunion of the Plainfield Academy Alumni association will be held today at Plainfield academy. Sneakers from New York and Boston will be present.

Rattlesnakes appear to be rather common in the vicinity of East Hampton. Only the other day a big one four feet seven inches long with seven rattles was killed.

To promote the safety of passengers on railroads the block signal and control board organized by the Interstate Commerce Commission will make a series of experiments this fall at Washington.

On Sunday next Rev. J. Cromwell Hughes will preach his last sermon as pastor of the Mountaineer Baptist church at New London. Mr. Hughes enters upon the duties of his new pastorate at Calais, Me., Sept. 1.

"Souvenir" Taylor was in Hartford Tuesday with green posters expressing best wishes to the members of the legislature and urging them to hurry photographs and sketches to him for the Legislative History.

Horatio Bigelow of Eastern Point with a party of friends came to grief in Mr. Bigelow's automobile at Mystic Tuesday evening. The car went out of business and Mr. Bigelow had to put his party aboard the 8:10 train for New London.

Gordon Bill attended a family dinner of the governors of the Bill public library at Groton Conn., Wednesday. Mr. Bill bears the years well and finds healthful diversion still in raising fruits and flowers.—Springfield Republican.

When a young lady from Norwich jumped into Capt. William F. Chesbro's launch at Noank Tuesday she gave the genial captain an unintentional but somewhat hefty shove that sent him backwards overboard. The captain was rescued.

Henry A. Smith of Massapequa, who served as first lieutenant of the 1st A. Twenty-sixth Connecticut Infantry and was wounded at Port Hudson, in '63, has been granted an increase of pension through the efforts of Congressman Higgins.

GALLUP CEMETERY ASSOCIATION

Held Seventh Annual Meeting at Old Burying Ground on Saturday.

The seventh annual meeting of the Gallup Cemetery association was held at the old burying ground at Mystic on Saturday with a fair proportion of the members in attendance. The secretary's report showed an enrollment of 34, there having been no new gain nor loss for the year. The treasurer reported receipts of $10.84 and expenditures of $17.53. Cash on hand amounted to $80.82 and the association also owns one share of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, worth about $170 and paying eight per cent.

The president outlined informally the genealogy of the Gallup family from the landing at Boston of the first member to come to America down to Squire Benadum, who was the first to be buried in the old cemetery, at that time a part of his field.

Those present were particularly impressed with the splendid new wall which was built on the west side of the cemetery last fall by Adm. Latta.

Those present were particularly impressed with the splendid new wall which was built on the west side of the cemetery last fall by Adm. Latta.

Officers for the ensuing year were unanimously re-elected as follows: President—Simeon Gallup, Old Mystic.

Secretary—William M. Gallup, Woodstock.

Treasurer—Christopher M. Gallup, Augusta, Me.

James H. Canty, baggage-master at the Consolidated station, with his daughter, Miss Eleanor F. Canty, returned Wednesday from Claremont Junction, N. H., his native place, where they had been for a week. Mr. Canty was in poor health when he went away and was greatly benefited by the short rest and change of climate.

An Exhibition Bouquet.

Mrs. Thomas Conlan of Avery's pond district, Preston, has shown herself to be a horticulturist of taste and skill. Mrs. Conlan presented the editor of The Bulletin on Wednesday with a mixed bouquet of flowers, the leading feature of which was over a dozen varieties of geraniums, and among the other fine flowers were gladioli, lavender and white china asters, French marigolds, heliotrope and sweet peas. There were over two dozen varieties of flowers in the bunch, which was attractive enough to be the central feature of a banquet table.

Sounds Like Harmony.

We notice that at King Edward's dinner in honor of the czar there were two guests named McKenna and Losowsky, respectively.—Los Angeles Times.

ANNUAL BILL DINNER AT LEYARD

Senator William I. Allen Re-elected President—Additional Gift to Association by Frederick Bill—Bountiful Repast and Pleasing Programme.

One day in each year the little building upon the green at Leyard Center in which the Bill library is located becomes the center of attraction for a large proportion of the residents of that town and for many in neighboring and more distant towns. And well it may, for there, through the munificence of the late Frederick Bill, is stored a large collection of the best literature current at the present time, which is constantly imparting its benefits to a large circle of readers. The substantial citizens of the town are proud of the institution and manifest their estimation of it by making the annual recurrence of the feast as attractive and pleasant as circumstances will allow.

On Wednesday the forty-second anniversary of the founding of the library was celebrated at the place where previous similar observances have taken place. Weather conditions were all that could be desired, except that a slightly lower temperature would have been agreeable.

At about 10 o'clock a. m. the trustees assembled in the library building. President William I. Allen in the chair. The roll of members was called and those present answered to their names. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The treasurer's report was read and on motion was accepted and approved. It showed a satisfactory condition of the finances.

The librarian's report was read and approved. It showed a satisfactory condition of the library.

It was announced that Frederick Bill had made a gift to the association of a bond of the United States for $1000 in exchange for the gift of $500 cash previously given. The gift was accepted and a vote of thanks to Mr. Bill was delivered by Rev. F. C. Jones.

The treasurer reported that he had paid $17.50 for printing 200 copies of the address delivered by the Rev. W. F. F.

STONINGTON BAPTIST
SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION,
Fifty-second Annual Meeting Held at Stonington—Officers Elected.

The fifty-second annual meeting of the Stonington Baptist Sunday School Union was held at Stonington Wednesday at 10 o'clock. Rev. Omer E. Buddington of the Pomfret Bridge Baptist church led the opening devotional services. During the morning session addresses were delivered by Rev. F. C. Jones of Stonington and Rev. J. W. Ford, D. D., of New Haven. There was singing of the programme in addition to the addresses.

A recess was taken at noon for luncheon. The two hundred or more in attendance lunched in Borough hall, where the report was made to the N. B. Prindle of Preston City. Addresses were delivered during the afternoon session by Rev. Frank Elmer of Winsted, Conn., and Rev. C. J. Moseup and Edward S. Dutton of New London. The Sunday School Superintendent was the subject of Mr. Dutton's address. He is superintendent of the Sunday school of the Mountaineer Baptist church, one of the largest Baptist Sunday schools in the state.

At the business meeting the following officers were chosen by the union: President—Rev. Omer E. Buddington, Pomfret.

Vice President—Deacon William H. Smith, Mystic.

Secretary and Treasurer—W. A. Fraser, Noank.

Assistant Secretary—Rev. J. Howard Adams, Pendleton Hill.

Auditor—Deacon Elias P. Wilcox, Mystic.

Committee on Resolutions—Rev. J. Howard Adams, Pendleton Hill, chairman; Deacon Elias P. Wilcox, Mystic; Deacon Elias P. Wilcox, Noank.

Committee on Place of Next Meeting—City, chairman; Rev. E. W. Potter, Jewett City; W. R. King, Stonington.

The Sunday schools embraced in the union are those as far north from Stonington as Jewett City and west as far as Lyme, excluding New London. Practically every church school was represented.

OBITUARY.

Horace Franklin Woodmansee.

The death of Horace Franklin Woodmansee of North Stonington occurred Saturday, August 21, at the age of 69 years, 7 months and 27 days. He was born in Rockville, R. I., the son of Asa and Sarah Woodmansee, and lived at home until 28 years of age, when he came to this city to work in the Greenville beachery. On August 17, 1876, he married Mary E. Gordon and they had five children, John E. Woodmansee, Mary E., who died young, Albert W. Woodmansee of Griswold, Mrs. Hattie May Dawley of Griswold, and Charles Lee Woodmansee of Scotland.

The deceased worked in the Mowry axe tree factory for several years, and then moved to a farm in North Stonington, where he remained the remainder of his life. He was buried at the Pachanga cemetery. He leaves two brothers, William F. Gordon, John E. Woodmansee, and two sisters, Mrs. Susan M. Clarke and Charlotte P. Woodmansee of Rockville, R. I.

Entertained Byrne Brothers.

Incidents in Society

Hit With a Brick.

William Bowler of Brook street, boss of a gang of men unloading brick from a schooner at Central wharf, was hit in the head with a brick by one of them. Wednesday afternoon, and knocked down and almost out. He was covered in a short time but could not find his assailant, who had got out of the way.

The man who wielded the brick had been spoken to by Mr. Bowler about carrying fewer bricks than the others. This made him mad and he used the brick on Mr. Bowler's head. In the office of Dr. Donohue, the wounded man had some stitches taken in a cut about four inches long. Mr. Bowler made no complaint at police headquarters to have the man arrested.

Wedding.

Gardner—Malloy.

At 12 o'clock on Tuesday Miss Beatrice Malloy of Preston and J. Frank Gardner of Griswold were married. The couple were united in a gown of white silk Persian lawn and carried a bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Frank A. Fuller of Norwich town, a dinner was served and a social hour enjoyed.

At 1:30 the newly married couple started on their wedding trip, to be away for a couple of weeks. A greater part of the time being spent at Matunuck Beach. The bride's going away costume was a smoke gray cloth suit with hat to match. Both young people are well known throughout the neighboring towns and their friends generously remembered them with presents and good wishes.

McIntire—Schaffeld.

There was a wedding last Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Schaffeld, on Carter street, Providence. Miss Lillie L. Schaffeld was married to Dr. Walter Roberts McIntire. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Frank A. Fuller of Norwich. The bride was escorted by her father, Dr. W. R. Jones of Hartford, father of the bride.

Only the members of the two families were present. The rooms were decorated with palms and pink and white asters, and the bride party entered to the music of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," played by Miss May Belle McIntire, sister of the bride.

The bride, who is a graduate of Brown, wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with duchesse and lace, and attended by her sister, Miss Anna M. Schaffeld, who wore a white silk mousseline. The bridegroom, who is a graduate of the University of Maryland, was attended by Dr. Ernest J. Jones of Norwich.

On Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock Warren W. Church and Miss Nettie Gray of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Gray, were united in marriage by Rev. J. G. Ward at the parsonage of the Trinity Episcopal church. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John McHattie of this city, Mrs. McHattie being sister of the groom.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Church are well known here, and they will have the best wishes of their many friends. He is nephew of the Edward Chappell company.

New Spitting Signs.

There have been erected about the city new signs calling the attention of the public to the fact that there is a fine of $5 for spitting on the sidewalks. They have been posted in conspicuous places and attract more attention than did the old ones, which had become disfigured. The background of the new signs is brown, with letters of black.

VERANDA LUNCHEON.

Miss Grace Taft and Master Harry Noonan Entertained.

Mrs. Charles Dowsett entertained at her home, No. 95 River avenue, Laurel Hill, Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guests, Miss Grace C. Taft and Master Harry Noonan, by giving a veranda luncheon, in their honor. The time was pleasantly passed by playing some novel games, appropriate for the occasion, and the spacious veranda was abundantly decorated with yellow daisies, which decorum was supplied by every table accessory, as well, making it a pretty sight when the numerous children, as well as the grown-up guests present from Fishers Island, Worcester, Boston, and many from this city.

The time passed all too soon, and the children departed for their various homes most reluctantly, carrying with them pleasant memories of the happy occasion.
